

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

SNAP-ON BUSINESS SOLUTIONS, INC.,)	CASE NO. 5:09-CV-1547
Plaintiff)	JUDGE JAMES S. GWIN
vs.)	DEFENSE MOTION IN LIMINE
)	TO PRECLUDE GREGORY
O'NEIL & ASSOCIATES, INC.,)	FEEZEL FROM EXPRESSING
)	EXPERT OPINIONS AT TRIAL Defendant)

Now comes the defendant, O'Neil & Associates, Inc., through undersigned counsel, and hereby moves to preclude expert opinion testimony from the plaintiff's employee and witness, Gregory Feezel. Such an Order is sought because Snap-On refused to permit Mr. Feezel to reveal materials he reviewed in connection with this case. To be clear, the defendant is not seeking to exclude Mr. Feezel from testifying as a fact witness. However, any opinions should not be permitted, because plaintiff's counsel improperly limited inquiry as to materials from which Mr. Feezel is expected to testify.

Mr. Feezel is an employee of the plaintiff, and was designated as a technical expert. At Mr. Feezel's deposition, however, counsel prevented inquiry into any documents or materials reviewed or relied upon by the witness:

21 Q. What, if anything, did you look at
22 in preparation for your deposition today?

23 MS. WILCOX: Objection.

24 Privileged. I'm instructing the
25 witness not to answer.

18

1 Q. Did you look at any documents that
2 you have prepared prior to your deposition
3 today?

4 MS. WILCOX: Objection.

5 Privileged. I'm instructing the
6 witness not to answer.

7 MR. PARKER: You're asserting a
8 privilege over information he prepared?

9 MS. WILCOX: Over any depo
10 preparation at all.

11 Q. Have you reviewed any e-mails prior
12 to this deposition?

13 MS. WILCOX: Objection.

14 MR. PARKER: Can he answer?

15 MS. WILCOX: I'm instructing the
16 witness not to answer.

17 Q. Do you expect to be offering any
18 opinions in connection with this case?

19 MS. WILCOX: Objection.

20 Privileged.

21 A. I didn't understand the question
22 anyway.

23 Q. Have you been asked to serve as an
24 expert witness in this case?

25 MS. WILCOX: You can answer.

19

1 A. Yes.

2 MS. WILCOX: We've identified
3 Mr. Feezel as an expert.

4 MR. PARKER: And that was my
5 appreciation as well, that you've identified
6 him as an expert.

7 Q. What have you reviewed in order to
8 express any expert opinions in this case?

9 MS. WILCOX: Objection.

10 Privileged.

11 MR. PARKER: You're not going to
12 let me even ask the basis of his opinions, the
13 facts and materials on which it's based, you
14 want me to take that to Judge Gwin?

15 MS. WILCOX: Well, I think when he
16 actually expresses his opinions, then you can
17 ask him what he used as the basis for those
18 opinions, but he hasn't given an opinion yet so
19 we're not prepared to disclose what he's looked 20 at.

(Deposition testimony of Gregory Feezel, pp. 17 – 19.)

Although plaintiff's counsel appears to have been asserting privilege, or potentially protection as trial preparation material, counsel has not provided a privilege log or otherwise described the nature of the documents as required under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 26(b)(5)(A).

The defense understands that Mr. Feezel is a fact witness and may testify to factual issues in the case. Mr. Feezel is also acknowledged to have particularized knowledge relating to his job, a subject to which he can certainly testify. However, given the inappropriate limitations on inquiry into material that was reviewed by the witness in preparation for purportedly being able to testify as an expert, the defendant respectfully requests that Mr. Feezel's testimony be limited, and that he be prohibited from providing opinion testimony at trial.

Respectfully submitted,
